SPECIAL NOTICE TO ALL COMPETITORS

Taxidermy competitions are intended to be enjoyable learning experiences for everyone involved. While disputes are inevitable in any type of competition they should in no way hamper the competition or distract those in attendance. Any disputes involving judging or the conduct of other competitors should be brought to the attention of the Competition Committee. Please keep in mind that the judges for the PTA competitions are selected based on their knowledge and accomplishments in their particular field. In short, they are judging our competitions because they are the best in the country.

Any competitor who harasses, intimidates or deliberately seeks to embarrass a judge at any PTA competition will be disqualified from that competition and may, upon review by the Competition Committee, be barred from future competitions.

Judges at PTA competitions are usually asked to do a considerable amount of work for a small amount of money. Most judges would much rather be working in their studios but instead they are sharing their knowledge with us. Let them know you appreciate their knowledge by asking for a critique of your work and actually listen! You might be surprised at what you can learn.

I. Eligibility

- A. The competition will be open to "paid-up" PTA members in good standing. (Individuals must be a current member in good standing of the PTA.)
- B. Participants over the age of 18 must be registered for at least one day of the convention and have paid the competition entry fee in order to compete. Participants must be individuals and not firms.

II. Divisions of Competition (Art & Taxidermy)

- A. YOUTH PARTICIPATION DIVISION - Open to children 10 years and under who wish to participate at a taxidermy competition. Child's parent/guardian/mentor must be a paid PTA member in good standing. Entry(s) fee is $10 for each piece and every one will receive a participation ribbon only. In this division, there are not separate categories or a best of division winner, nor are these entries eligible for any other awards. Entry(s) can be anything that the child wishes to create that is wildlife oriented - from a coloring book page to their first attempt at a taxidermy mount and everything imaginable in between.
- B. JUNIOR AMATEUR DIVISION - Amateurs 16 years old and under. Junior amateur award winners will receive "amateur" ribbons. Any Junior amateur who wins a Best of Category at the annual convention competition will have the opportunity to move up to the Amateur Division if the competitor wants to (they don't have to move up to the Amateur Division until they are 17 years old - but they may move up by winning a Best of Category, if they wish to).
- C. AMATEUR DIVISION - An amateur who wins Best of Category at annual convention will move up into the Professional Division.
- D. PROFESSIONAL DIVISION - Licensed taxidermists (Amateurs who have won a Best of Category complete in this division) If you win Best of Category in this division at annual convention competition you will move up to the Masters Division.
- E. MASTER DIVISION - Open to all individuals who feel they are capable of competing at the Master's Level. Once a competitor chooses to compete in the Master Division in a given category, they may not return to the Professional Division in that category. Any competitor who has won Best of Category in the Professional Division at annual convention competition must move up to the Master Division in that category.
- F. COLLECTIVE ARTIST DIVISION - This division is for competition pieces where more than one taxidermist worked on the entry. It can be entered in the name of the studio or each artist can be listed as the creators. In this division, there are not separate categories. There will be only one: First Place, Second Place, Third Place, and Honorable Mention. The winners will receive ribbons. The winner of this category is chosen by all the judges based on their opinion not a score the Judges vote as a group on which piece they like best. Awards are given based on the group's decision. There is no limit to the number of entries a studio or group may enter in this division. Collective artists' pieces are not eligible for any awards determined by score. (ex. Best of Show) This division is nonrestrictive as far as special awards. The whole piece will be judged as one even if it contains a combination of animals. The entry fee covers the entire piece in this division.
- G. COMMERCIAL DIVISION - Open to all types of taxidermy & judged by 1 All-Around Judge - not category or division specific - no best of category - no scoresheets. Judging is done from a distance (no flashlights, magnifying glasses, or touching of the mounts). Critiques are done as a group (times will be posted). All entries will be grouped together in a separate area. Commercial Division entries are not eligible for any awards determined by score, special awards or Competitors Award.

III. Judging

- A. Judges for PTA competition will be selected by the PTA Board.
- B. All judges will be instructed to judge the final result not the method used to achieve it. It is the hope of the competition committee that this stipulation will eliminate any possible prejudices some judges may have concerning freeze-dry specimens.

C. Score sheet - Each entry is separately scored on a score sheet. You may place with your entry any information regarding originality that you feel the judge needs to be aware of. Score sheets will be returned to the participants.

D. Every effort will be made to have our judges available to discuss/critique your mount(s) on a one-on-one basis. (Please be considerate to other competitors and the judges by having your piece(s) critiqued as quickly as possible. Most competitors want to talk with the judges and time is short.)

E. Decisions of the competition judges will be final.

IV. Awards

In the PTA, competition entries are judged on their own merit against a perfect score. (Mother Nature rather than against each other.) Any Entry receiving 90% is awarded a First Place. 80% receives a Second Place and 70% receives a Third Place. Multiple award are given except the Collective Artist Division.
